

Last Lacrosse Game Of J. H. U.

The Johns Hopkins lacrosse team will leave Baltimore this morning for Swarthmore, Pa., where the last and most important game of the season will be played against Swarthmore College.

If the J. H. U. wins, her title to the championship of the entire country will be undisputed, as Swarthmore has defeated the only important teams which Hopkins has not met. The J. H. U. line-up will be:

Goal, Briscoe; point, Schmeisser; cover point, Tyler; first defense, Straus; second defense, Bruton; third defense, Tough; center, Abercrombie; third attack, P. Bernheim; second attack, Hatch; first attack, Bandel; out-home, B. Bernheim; in-home, Putts.
