

factured it.

It is believed that the burglars would have been captured, but there was considerable noise in the borough about that time owing to the return of the Swarthmore College Lacrosse team, who were met by their fellow students. Some of the people were a little tardy in arising thinking the commotion made by the burglars was simply some of the pranks of the college men.

OTHER ATTEMPTS MADE.

Before starting on the post office building, it is believed that the same burglars made several attempts to enter the residents of prominent citizens, as strange noises were heard by several, but so far as can be learned, the thieves were frightened off in each case.

The safe wrecking and robbery is the worst the town or its environs has ever experienced, and the whole population is alarmed over the escapade.
