

his of Oshawa.

BERT DAVIS AND HIS COUNT.

Bert Davis, the ex-Tecumseh lacrosse player, is coaching the Stevens' Institute team. He thinks they will be strong. He handled the Swarthmore team last year. He says that he has a genuine Russian count as a candidate for third defence. Bert says he is big, husky, and strong, and will likely make a good player.

TINY GLADNEY IN NEW YORK.

"Tiny" Gladney of Belleville, who played lacrosse and hockey at Varsity, is now in New York and will play on the Crescent team.

All of the members of last year's champion team will play again, proba-

LALONDE BACK IN CORNWALL.

Lalonde, who played hockey in Woodstock this winter, is slated to play goal for the Cornwall Lacrosse Club this summer. Other men available for the defence end are "Fid" Cummins, Bill Broderick, W. Burns, Mack Craig, Charles Degan, F. Riviere, D. Tacier, and W. Charlebois.

Besides these it is rumored that John White and Fred Degan may remain in town, and if so Cornwall will ask for their reinstatement as members of the N. A. L. U.

For the attacking division Cornwall has L. McAleer, J. C. Broderick, Dave Tanguay, Donald Smith, Francis Cummins, Bob Degan, D. Phelan, H. Brooks, Hurteau, and half a dozen juniors, so good that they are almost in one class.

Clipped By:
mpetrone74
Aug 25, 2024