

SCOTTISH GAMES.—The St. Andrews Benevolent Society and the Scottish Guard have arranged for a day of sport at Belle Isle on the Fourth of July. Beside racing, jumping and all kinds of athletic sports, there is to be played a game of Lacrosse by a team of thirteen Indians opposed by the Beaver Club of St. Thomas, Ontario, and to the winning club Thomas Lorimer will present a splendid silver goblet. The other prizes are cash, and aggregate $200. Music will be furnished by the Detroit Cadet Band and the pipers. The steamers Victoria and Excelsior will run every half hour during the day.
