

BIG CROWD WATCHES LACROSSE GAME

The Philadelphia Comets beat the Philadelphia Club in a box lacrosse game yesterday at Swarthmore before a big crowd.

The Philadelphia Club, a new outfit, managed to get only four goals through the airtight defense of the veteran Comets. Dolman and Edel scored once and Zahnow twice for the losers.

Hank Ford tallied one, Whitey Howard, two, and Chink Rickard had three for the Comets. All Swarthmore College grads, they led the attack on the new club. William T. Eills' son scored one for the Comets, as did Jim Radcliffe. Hap Middleton, Penn coach, was in the line-up.

Swarthmore Indians meet the Philadelphia Club at Swarthmore next Wednesday.
