

Philadelphia Lacrosse Club Vs. Comets Tomorrow

Phila. Club		Comets
Zahnow	attack	Glenn
Frazer	attack	Houck
Edell	center	Waters
Weibel	defense	Carter
Hess	defense	Foster
Davies	goal	Strothar

Spare—Philadelphia Club; Zimmerman, Kane, Rice, Kahler, Schrader, Dolman; Comets: Haviland, Hewitt, Rickards, Johnson French and Merriweather.

The Comets will start their drive to catch the Swarthmore Indians in the Amateur Box Lacrosse League tomorrow night, when they face the Philadelphia Lacrosse Club at the Swarthmore box, Sproul and Fairview roads, Swarthmore, at 7 p. m. The Comets are led by George Carter, a former star at Johns Hopkins and one of the best lacrosse players ever to graduate from that school. A number of other Hopkins players dot the Comets' lineup as well as former Harvard and Princeton players. Chris Zahnow, former Temple football ace, leads the Lacrosse Club six. Penn State, Swarthmore and Pennsylvania have contributed most of the players on the Lacrosse Club roster. Zahnow was one of the best fullbacks ever to wear the Cherry and White and he uses his football knowledge to an advantage when he goes into action in the box sport.