

Plans for box lacrosse matches at the Farm have not progressed beyond the tentative stage. Joe Kaitler, who coaches Sun Oil and is chairman in charge of the sport, is having difficulty getting commitments this early from college players who will not be available until late this month.

May Start In July

It is fairly certain, however, that the regular weekly games will be staged at the Sun Oil box, probably starting in early July.

The 26 team softball league starts