

COLLEGE EVENTS

AT SWARTHMORE

Alumni Day To-Morrow—Noted English Visitors—President Swain at Friends' School.

To-morrow will be known as Alumni Day at Swarthmore College and in addition the students will entertain the pupils of several preparatory schools of the State.

In the afternoon there will be relay races between teams from the various visiting preparatory schools, fifteen prizes having been offered to the winners by President Swain and members of the Alumni. In the afternoon there will be a championship lacrosse game between the college team and a team from the John Hopkins' University, of Baltimore.

In the evening there will be an Inter-Scholastic Oratorical Contest for the students of the preparatory schools. Eight of the latter will send representatives.
