

PENN LACROSSE ACE LEADS IN SCORING

Bob Stevens, University of Pennsylvania's first attack, has scored in each of his team's five games to date, to lead the list of scorers released by the Pennsylvania Lacrosse Coaches Association. The association will give an award at the end of the season for the individual high scorer in the state. Stevens has sent 15 shots home to score, and is closely pressed by Lew Coffin and Herm Krattenmaker, Swarthmore College's senior homes, with 13 and 11 respectively. Coskery, of Penn State, is fourth on the list with 10 markers.
