

:—o—:

Marshall Gotchell, well-known lacrosse enthusiast, is back in town after a vacation spent in Canada. Marshall will be at goal for the Comets at the Swarthmore box tonight. He reported a widespread enthusiasm among the fans of Canada and says the reason for the success of the box game up there is due to the encouragement of the youngsters, with leagues for boys under 16 and on up.

:—o—: