

Swarthmore High Starts Lacrosse

Swarthmore High School will open its lacrosse season Thursday afternoon when it meets the University of Pennsylvania freshmen.

The game will be played at Penn's River Field at 3.15 p. m. It had originally been scheduled for Swarthmore on Friday.

The Swarthmore team, coached by Millard Robinson, football mentor, will play a seven-game schedule. The only high school team it will meet is Lower Merion. The Garnet and the Ardmore Aces form the only two high school lacrosse teams in the state of Pennsylvania.

Robinson has a group of seven veterans around which to build his team. They are Sandy Ford, John Snape, Bill McHenry, Dick McCray, John Tyler, Phil Hummer, and Bill McGlathery.

Inexperienced youngsters who round out the squad are Clem Malin, John Pearson, Dick McCormack, Bob Lang, Larry Frank, John Chapman, Len Thomsen, Bob Terry, Don McElwee, Ed Harris, Howard Shearer, George Allen, and Jim Schmidt. Fred Shoyer is manager.

The remainder of the schedule: Tues., Apr. 18—Lower Merion, home; Thurs., Apr. 20—Swarthmore College JV, away; Fri., May 5—Lower Merion, away; Tues., May 9—Swarthmore College JV, home; Sat., May 13—Drexel Jv, home; Fri., May 19—St. Paul's School of Baltimore, Md., home.

All games except the opener and the Drexel game start at 4 o'clock. The Drexel contest begins at 1.30 p. m.
