

three minutes and was won by the University men; the second occupied but two minutes and was also put down to the score of the University. For the remaining eighty-five minutes both teams struggled most manfully for a goal but time was called without one being credited to either side. The Manhattanvilles are anxious to avenge their defeat and within a short time a return game will doubtless be played. Mr. J. Atwood was Captain of the New York University Club and Mr. Scott of the Manhattanville College Club. Mr. Calder acted as referee.
